Introduction and Overview

The Receptive Life is ...

a spiritual framework ...
a way of thinking
a way of acting
a way of living out the Christian life
daily and weekly practices

that focuses on ...

"receiving" the person and work of Jesus
and "making use" of Him

A spiritual framework that will help you ...

- fight against the "unholy trinity" (devil, the world, and the sinful flesh)
- defend yourselves with the work and promises of Jesus
- receive all of the gifts that only the Triune God can give

Introduction and Overview

Metaphor of the Spiritual Ladder performing vs. receiving

what I must do = performance
sin's default mindset

what Christ has done = receptivity
by grace, through faith, for the sake of Jesus

We are spiritual beggars
"Lord, have mercy!"

"... the Gospel bids us to hold the sack open and have something given to us."

"We are beggars; this is true!" (Martin Luther)

Introduction and Overview

The Receptive Life (Active and Passive) getting/going to all of the places (we are active) where the Triune God has promised to do His work and give to us His gifts (God is active)

we receive (passive)

In the Scriptures and the Sacraments ...

we "receive" the person and work of Jesus
we "make use of" Him

Thus the worship and divine service of the Gospel is to receive from God gifts; on the contrary, the worship of the Law is to offer and present our gifts to God. We can, however, offer nothing to God unless we have first been reconciled and born again ... the chief worship of the Gospel is to wish to receive remission of sins, grace, and righteousness.

Apology of the Augsburg Confession, Article III
paragraph 189, Concordia Triglotta

... the Gospel compels us to avail ourselves (make use) of Christ in justification ... it (the Gospel) teaches that through Him we have access to God by faith; it teaches that we ought to set Him as Mediator and Propitiator against God's wrath; it teaches that by faith in Christ the remission of sins and reconciliation are received, and the terrors of sin and of death overcome.

Apology of the Augsburg Confession, Article III
paragraph 170-171, Concordia Triglotta

Martin Luther Preface to ... The *Large and Small Catechism

after the "visitations"

The deplorable, miserable condition which I discovered lately when I, too, was a visitor, has forced and urged me to prepare [publish] this Catechism, or Christian doctrine, in this small, plain, simple form. Mercy! Good God! what manifold misery I beheld!

The common people, especially in the villages, have no knowledge whatever of Christian doctrine, and, alas! many pastors are altogether incapable and incompetent to teach [so much so, that one is ashamed to speak of it]. Nevertheless, all maintain that they are Christians, have been baptized and receive the [common] holy Sacraments.

Yet they [do not understand and] cannot [even] recite either the Lord's Prayer, or the Creed, or the Ten Commandments; they live like dumb brutes and irrational hogs; and yet, now that the Gospel has come, they have nicely learned to abuse all liberty like experts.

Martin Luther creates the Small Catechism

The devil may be the master of 1000 arts but the Triune God and His Word are master of 100,000 more.

"teach the devil to death"

the "daily exercise" of the Christian faith

Therefore I again implore all Christians, especially pastors and preachers, not to be doctors too soon, and imagine that they know everything ... but that they daily exercise themselves well in these studies and constantly treat them;

moreover, that they guard with all care and diligence against the poisonous infection of such security and vain imagination, but steadily keep on reading, teaching, learning, pondering, and meditating, and do not cease until they have made a test and are sure that they have taught the devil to death, and have become more learned than God Himself and all His saints.

Lesson 1 - The Sign of the Cross and the Trinitarian Invocation

Station 1: Make the Sign of the Cross and Say the Trinitarian Invocation

In the morning, when you rise, you shall bless yourself with the holy cross and say:

"In the name of God the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost (Spirit). Amen."

*-Small Catechism – Daily Prayers

Meditate on the following ...

Christ FOR me (Romans 8)
Christ WITH me (Matt. 28:20)
Christ IN and THROUGH me (Gal. 2:20-21)

Amen! Amen!
Yes! Yes! It is so!

Marked by the Cross and the Trinitarian Invocation

- What the Triune God has done!
- Who you are!
- Whose you are!

"I belong to Jesus Christ!"

... that I may be [wholly] His own, and live under Him in His kingdom, and serve Him in everlasting righteousness, innocence, and blessedness, even as He is risen from the dead, lives and reigns to all eternity. This is most certainly true.

Lesson 1 - The Sign of the Cross and the Trinitarian Invocation

... they (the people) should be constantly urged and incited to honor God's name, and to have it always upon their lips in everything that may happen to them or come to their notice. For that is the true honor of His name, to look to it and implore it for all consolation, so that (as we have heard above) first the heart by faith gives God the honor due Him, and afterwards the lips by confession.

This is also a blessed and useful habit and very effectual against the devil, who is ever about us, and lies in wait to bring us into sin and shame, calamity and trouble, but who is very loath to hear God's name, and cannot remain long where it is uttered and called upon from the heart. And, indeed, many a terrible and shocking calamity would befall us if, by our calling upon His name, God did not preserve us.

I have myself tried it, and learned by experience that often sudden great calamity was immediately averted and removed during such invocation. To vex the devil, I say, we should always have this holy name in our mouth, so that he may not be able to injure us as he wishes.

For this end it is also of service that we form the habit of daily commending ourselves to God, with soul and body, wife, children, servants, and all that we have, against every need that may occur; whence also the blessing and thanksgiving at meals, and other prayers, morning and evening, have originated and remain in use.

Likewise the practice of children to cross themselves when anything monstrous or terrible is seen or heard, and to exclaim: "Lord God, protect us!" "Help, dear Lord Jesus!" Thus, too, if any one meets with unexpected good fortune, however trivial, that he say: "God be praised and thanked; this God has bestowed on me!"

The Second Article. Of Redemption.

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary; suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

What does this mean?

–Answer: I believe that Jesus Christ, true God, begotten of the Father from eternity, and also true man, born of the Virgin Mary, is my Lord, who has redeemed me, a lost and condemned creature, purchased and won [delivered] me from all sins, from death, and from the power of the devil, not with gold or silver, but with His holy, precious blood and with His innocent suffering and death, in order that I may be [wholly] His own, and live under Him in His kingdom, and serve Him in everlasting righteousness, innocence, and blessedness, even as He is risen from the dead, lives and reigns to all eternity.

For there is no distinction, 23 for all have sinned, and fall short of the glory of God; 24 being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, 25 whom God sent to be an atoning sacrifice³:25 or, a propitiation through faith in his blood, for a demonstration of his righteousness through the passing over of prior sins, in God's forbearance; 26 to demonstrate his righteousness at this present time, that he might himself be just and the justifier of him who has faith in Jesus. 22 Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, "Far be it from you, Lord! This will never be done to you."

23 But he turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me, for you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but on the things of men."

24 Then Jesus said to his disciples, "If anyone desires to come after me, let him deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. 25 For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, and whoever will lose his life for my sake will find it. 26 For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world and forfeits his life? Or what will a man give in exchange for his life? 27 For the Son of Man will come in the glory of his Father with his angels, and then he will render to everyone according to his deeds. (WEB)

1 Peter 4:21-ff: 21For you were called to this, because Christ also suffered for us, leaving you an example, that you should follow his steps, 22who didn't sin, "neither was deceit found in his mouth."

23When he was cursed, he didn't curse back. When he suffered, he didn't threaten, but committed himself to him who judges righteously. 24He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we, having died to sins, might live to righteousness. Station Two

Station 2: Pray the Morning and/or Evening Prayer

In the morning, when you rise AND in the evening when you go to sleep ...
you shall bless yourself with the holy cross and say:

“In the name of God the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.”

And then pray ...

Luther's Morning Prayer

I thank Thee, my Heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, Thy dear Son, that Thou hast kept me this night from all harm and danger; and I pray Thee to keep me this day also from sin and all evil, that all my doings and life may please Thee. For into Thy hands I commend myself, my body and soul, and all things. Let Thy holy angel be with me, that the Wicked Foe may have no power over me. Amen.

Luther's Evening Prayer

I thank Thee, my Heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, Thy dear Son, that Thou hast graciously kept me this day, and I pray Thee to forgive me all my sins, where I have done wrong, and graciously keep me this night. For into Thy hands I commend myself, my body and soul, and all things. Let Thy holy angel be with me, that the Wicked Foe may have no power over me.
Amen.

The Sixth Petition. And lead us not into temptation.

What does this mean?

Answer. God, indeed, tempts no one; but we pray in this petition that God would guard and keep us, so that the devil, the world, and our flesh may not deceive us, nor seduce us into misbelief, despair, and other great shame and vice; and though we be assailed by them, that still we may finally overcome and gain the victory.

Give us this day our daily bread.

What does this mean?

Answer. God gives daily bread, even without our prayer, to all wicked men; but we pray in this petition that He would lead us to know it, and to receive our daily bread with thanksgiving.

What is meant by daily bread?

Answer. Everything that belongs to the support and wants of the body, such as meat, drink, clothing, shoes, house, homestead, field, cattle, money, goods, a pious spouse, pious children, pious servants, pious and faithful magistrates, good government, good weather, peace, health, discipline, honor, good friends, faithful neighbors, and the like.

Lesson 1 - Confession repent, receive, rejoice (repeat)

The Receptive Life is a spiritual framework ...

a way of thinking
a way of acting
a way of living out the Christian life

that focuses on "receiving" the person and work of Jesus
and "making use" of Him.

Metaphor of the Spiritual Ladder performing vs. receiving

what I must do = performance
sin's default mindset

what Christ has done = receptivity
by grace, through faith, for the sake of Jesus

Lesson 1 - Confession repent, receive, rejoice (repeat)

Thus the worship and divine service of the Gospel is to receive from God gifts; on the contrary, the worship of the Law is to offer and present our gifts to God.

We can, however, offer nothing to God unless we have first been reconciled and born again ... the chief worship of the Gospel is to wish to receive remission of sins, grace, and righteousness.

V. Confession: How Christians should be taught to confess.

What is Confession?

Confession embraces two parts: the one is, that we confess our sins; the other, that we receive absolution, or forgiveness, from the confessor, as from God Himself, and in no wise doubt, but firmly believe, that our sins are thereby forgiven before God in heaven.

*Luther's Small Catechism, Confession V

1 John 1:8--2:3 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous to forgive us the sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we haven't sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

Where and to whom should we go?

John 6:66 At this, many of his disciples went back and walked no more with him. 67Jesus said therefore to the twelve, "You don't also want to go away, do you?"

68 Simon Peter answered him, "Lord, to whom would we go? You have the words of eternal life. 69We have come to believe and know that you are the Christ, the Son of the living God." (WEB)

Lesson 2 - Confession Spiritual Diagnosis

The sum of the preaching of the Gospel is this: to convict of sin; to offer for Christ's sake the forgiveness of sins and righteousness, the Holy Spirit, and eternal life; and that as reborn people we should do good works.

[30] So Christ includes the sum of the Gospel when He says, "Repentance and forgiveness of sins should be proclaimed in His name to all nations" (Luke 24:47).

V. Confession: How Christians should be taught to confess.

What sins should we confess?

Before God we should plead guilty of all sins, even of those which we do not know, as we do in the Lord's Prayer. But before the confessor we should confess those sins alone which we know and feel in our hearts.

Which are these?

Here consider your station according to the Ten Commandments, whether you are a father, mother, son, daughter, master, mistress, a man-servant or maid-servant; whether you have been disobedient, unfaithful, slothful; whether you have grieved any one by words or deeds; whether you have stolen, neglected, or wasted aught, or done other injury.

... the chief worship of the Gospel is to wish to receive remission of sins, grace, and righteousness.

Apology of the Augsburg Confession, Article III
paragraph 189, Concordia Triglotta

[55] Everything, therefore, in the Christian Church is ordered toward this goal: we shall daily receive in the Church nothing but the forgiveness of sin through the Word and signs, to comfort and encourage our consciences as long as we live here.

So even though we have sins, the ‹grace of the› Holy Spirit does not allow them to harm us. For we are in the Christian Church, where there is nothing but ‹continuous, uninterrupted› forgiveness of sin.

This is because God forgives us and because we forgive, bear with, and help one another [Galatians 6:1–2].

Life of Repentance ... not just a day but a way of life

When our Lord and Master Jesus Christ said, "Repent" (Matthew 4:17), he willed the entire life of believers to be one of repentance.

- Martin Luther, 95 Theses, (Theses 1)

Lesson 5 - Confession A Way of Life

What does such baptizing with water signify?

Answer: It signifies that the old Adam in us should, by daily contrition and repentance, be drowned and die with all sins and evil lusts, and, again, a new man daily come forth and arise; who shall live before God in righteousness and purity forever.

Where is this written?

Answer: St. Paul says Romans, chapter 6: We are buried with Christ by Baptism into death, that, like as He was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.

Christian Questions with Their Answers

Prepared by Dr. Martin Luther for those who intend to go to the Sacrament

A Brief Form of Confession

You should speak to the confessor thus: Reverend and dear sir, I beseech you to hear my confession, and to pronounce forgiveness to me for God's sake.

Proceed: I, a poor sinner, confess myself before God guilty of all sins; especially I confess before you that I am a man-servant, a maidservant, etc. But, alas, I serve my master unfaithfully; for in this and in that I have not done what they commanded me; I have provoked them, and caused them to curse, have been negligent [in many things] and permitted damage to be done; have also been immodest in words and deeds, have quarreled with my equals, have grumbled and sworn at my mistress, etc. For all this I am sorry, and pray for grace; I want to do better.

A master or mistress may say thus: In particular I confess before you that I have not faithfully trained my children, domestics, and wife [family] for God's glory. I have cursed, set a bad example by rude words and deeds, have done my neighbor harm and spoken evil of him, have overcharged and given false ware and short measure. And whatever else he has done against God's command and his station, etc.

But if any one does not find himself burdened with such or greater sins, he should not trouble himself or search for or invent other sins, and thereby make confession a torture, but mention one or two that he knows. Thus: In particular I confess that I once cursed; again, I once used improper words, I have once neglected this or that, etc. Let this suffice. But if you know of none at all (which, however is scarcely possible), then mention none in particular, but receive the forgiveness upon your general confession which you make before God to the confessor.

Then shall the confessor say: God be merciful to thee and strengthen thy faith! Amen.
Furthermore: Dost thou believe that my forgiveness is God's forgiveness?
—Answer: Yes, dear sir.

Then let him say: As thou believest, so be it done unto thee. And by the command of our Lord Jesus Christ I forgive thee thy sins, in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. Amen. Depart in peace. But those who have great burdens upon their consciences, or are distressed and tempted, the confessor will know how to comfort and to encourage to faith with more passages of Scripture. This is to be merely a general form of confession for the unlearned.

Preface to the Wittenberg Edition of Luther's German Writings,

"I want to point out to you a correct way of studying theology, for I have had practice in that. If you keep to it, you will become so learned that you yourself could (if it were necessary) write books just as good as those of the fathers and councils . . .

"This is the way taught by holy King David (and doubtlessly used also by all the patriarchs and prophets) in the one hundred nineteenth Psalm."

"There you will find three rules, amply presented throughout the whole Psalm. They are Oratio, Meditatio, Tentatio [prayer, meditation, Anfechtung (affliction, conflict, severe soul-struggle)]."

The Five "Uses" of the Scripture

- #1 Jesus as our hope and consolation
- #2 What is the Truth? And proclaiming right teaching.
- #3 What is a lie? And refuting false teaching.
- #4 What is wrong? Rebuking and correcting false living.
- #5 What is right? Exhorting and encouraging true living.

Say the Apostle's Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty. From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Meaning to the First Article of the Apostle's Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth.

What does this mean?

I believe that God has made me and all creatures; that He has given me my body and soul, eyes, ears, and all my limbs, my reason, and all my senses, and still preserves them; in addition thereto, clothing and shoes, meat and drink, house and homestead, wife and children, fields, cattle, and all my goods;

that He provides me richly and daily with all that I need to support this body and life, protects me from all danger, and guards me and preserves me from all evil; and all this out of pure, fatherly, divine goodness and mercy, without any merit or worthiness in me; for all which I owe it to Him to thank, praise, serve, and obey Him. This is most certainly true.

Lesson 2 - The Commendation and the Apostle's Creed

Meaning to the Second Article of the Apostle's Creed

What does this mean?

Answer. I believe that Jesus Christ, true God, begotten of the Father from eternity, and also true man, born of the Virgin Mary, is my Lord who has redeemed me, a lost and condemned creature, purchased and won [delivered] me from all sins, from death, and from the power of the devil

...not with gold or silver, but with His holy, precious blood and with His innocent suffering and death, in order that I may be [wholly] His own, and live under Him in His kingdom, and serve Him in everlasting righteousness, innocence, and blessedness, even as He is risen from the dead, lives and reigns to all eternity.

This is most certainly true.

Meaning to the Third Article of the Apostle's Creed

What does this mean?

I believe that I cannot by my own reason or strength believe in Jesus Christ, my Lord, or come to Him; but the Holy Ghost has called me by the Gospel, enlightened me with His gifts, sanctified and kept me in the true faith;

even as He calls, gathers, enlightens, and sanctifies the whole Christian Church on earth, and keeps it with Jesus Christ in the one true faith; in which Christian Church He forgives daily and richly all sins to me and all believers, and at the last day will raise up me and all the dead, and will give to me and to all believers in Christ everlasting life.

This is most certainly true.

Station Six

Station 6: Say (Sing) the Doxology and the Aaronic Blessing

the "Doxology" (Thomas Ken, 1674)

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heav'nly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost!

the Aaronic Blessing

"The Lord bless you, and keep you.
The Lord make his face to shine on you, and be gracious to you.
The Lord lift up his face towards you, and give you peace."
Numbers 6:24-26 (WEB)

The Doxology and the Blessing

The Pattern of the Psalms

Psalm 103:1-5: Praise the Lord, my soul!
All that is within me, praise his holy name!
2 Praise the Lord, my soul, and don't forget all his benefits 3 who forgives all your sins,
who heals all your diseases, 4 who redeems your life from destruction, who crowns you with loving kindness and tender mercies, 5 who satisfies your desire with good things,
so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.

The Receptive Life is ...

a spiritual framework ...
a way of thinking
a way of acting
a way of living out the Christian life
daily and weekly practices

that focuses on ...

"receiving" the person and work of Jesus
and "making use" of Him

A spiritual framework that will help you ...

- fight against the "unholy trinity" (devil, the world, and the sinful flesh)
- defend yourselves with the work and promises of Jesus
- receive all of the gifts that only the Triune God can give
